

Welcome to East Imperial

Located in Carlton at the corner of Faraday Street and Rathdowne Street, East Imperial Chinese Restaurant serves the finest yet original of the Chinese classic provincial cuisines of Guangdong, Beijing, Shanghai and Szechuan. New modern culinary style blends in the traditional cooking technique, introducing you a brand new tasting experience!

Bringing out the authentic flavors with the freshest ingredients is always our mission. Highlighting health elements, we carefully choose seasonal ingredients either from local wet markets or flown in from around the world. We prioritize quality and hygiene a crucial matter in our cooking procedures. You can rest assured and enjoy the delicious cuisines we prepared for you.

We have been awarded several honours in different reviews and ratings since our opening in April 2006. We got in the The Age 'Good Food Guide' for five consecutive years from 2006 to 2010. Credit is given to our Chef who is the expert in these specialties with over twenty years of experience. He has been awarded the top honours in numerous Modern Chinese Cooking Competitions in Hong Kong and China.

We will continuously present vibrant dishes that speak of the classic food styles of China and share with our valued customers through this modern sense of enjoyment. Your valued comments are much appreciated for us to offer you the ever best dining experience.

Thank you for your coming and we look forward to seeing you again in the soon future.
